Description

Hattersley House consists of small office suites which allow for a pleasant working environment for any small occupier to base their professional outfit. The suites have suspended ceiling with recessed lighting and benefit from a raised floor allowing for electrical access across the floor plate. Hattersley House offers shared kitchen facilities, toilets and reception access. The property is accessed via a personal access fob and each suite benefits from an intercom system. All communal areas are professionally cleaned, which is part of the Service Charge and this includes the external areas of the estate which are well maintained.

The suites are heated by wall mounted electrical heaters. All electricity is separately metered and is charged on a consumption basis. Service charge is based on approximately £3.50 psf.
